

CLINICS - Jean-philippe Camboulives (FEI Tutor, FRA)

Jean-philippe Camboulives, an FEI tutor, will be in South Africa at the end of July. Mr. Camboulives was the National Coach for the Brazilian Eventing team for the 2008 Olympics, and in February 2009 the Eventing Technical Committee appointed him as National Coach to assist South African riders to qualify for WEG 2010 and thereafter the 2012 Olympic Games. He will be in South Africa primarily to assist the Eventing Long List riders, and while he is here he has agreed to also conduct clinics for Show Jumping and Dressage.

Show Jumping

Tuesday 21 July – Thursday 23 July
For riders jumping 1.30 m and above

Dressage

Friday 24 July – Sunday 26 July
For riders riding at Elementary Medium and above

The clinics will run over 3 days, and the participants will attend all 3 days. There are 8 places on each clinic.

Please contact Megan Duncan at SANEF for details and bookings. megan@horsesport.org.za or 011 468 3236