

SOUTH AFRICAN NATIONAL
Equestrian Federation

2010 Alltech World Equestrian Games

PARADRESSAGE

Marion Milne competed in the Individual Para Dressage Section at the 2010 Alltech World Equestrian Games in Kentucky. Marion is a Grade 1b classified rider and had to get used to her loaned horse in a short period of time.

Marion rode a horse belonging to Susan Lerner from the USA called Santosha.

In the Individual Grade 1b Test Marion scored 63.13 placing a good 13th out of 17 starters.

In the Individual Grade 1b Freestyle competition Marion and Santosha scored 63.05 placing them 12th out of the 17 competitors.

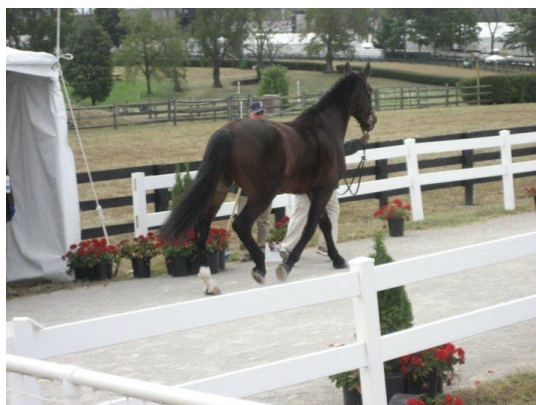

The focus after the Games for Marion will be training and preparation for the Paralympics.

Anthony Dawson (L) and Marion Milne (R)
during the Opening Ceremony

Marion and her South African horse
Baron

Santosha at the WEG Veterinary Inspection

South African National Equestrian Federation Press Release

