

2010 Alltech World Equestrian Games

EVENTING

Thursday 30th September 2010 First Day – Eventing Dressage

Today is the first day of the Eventing at the 2010 Alltech World Equestrian Games. Two of our riders are doing their Dressage today. Douglas Welsh and Kings Courier (S A Bred Thoroughbred) will be third to start at 09:16 USA Time. Martyn Swanepoel with Kardinal (Namibian Warmblood) are later in the field, third after the lunch break at 13:46 USA time and 23rd to go out of the 40 horses doing Dressage today.

Also doing Dressage today is the lovely Bay thoroughbred Inonothing ridden by Australian rider Paul Tapner, William Fox Pitt (GBR) and Mark Todd (NZL).

Dressage on Friday 1st October starts at 09h00 USA time with Paul Hart and Heartbreak Hill (S A Thoroughbred) ninth to go at 10:16 USA time. Graham Winn and Zorba (Namibian Warmblood) are in the middle of the field straight after the lunch break at 13:30 USA time. Last of our South African Eventers is Heidi Wood on the beautiful Grey Quantum Leap at 14:46 USA time. Andrew Nicholson (NZL) and Mary King (GBR) also doing their dressage on Friday.

Photos courtesy of Sheryl Pote

A look at one of the Water complex's at the 2010 Alltech World Equestrian Games
Australian rider Paul Tapner with Inonothing doing their trot up.
William Fox Pitt (GBR) doing their vet check

