PARA DRESSAGE

The South African Team competing at the 2010 World Equestrian Games have been flying the SA Flag high. All the riders had to hire/loan horses from USA owners, only 2008 Double Gold Paralympic medalist Philippa Johnson is riding her own horse. Benedict her mount from Hong Kong is out with an injury so Verdi (whom Philippa has only owned for less than 6 months) who is a young horse, only being 8 years old has stepped up for the Games. In the Team test on Tuesday – Grade IV Philippa scored a fantastic 66.18 tying 4th and Cathy Lloyd on United We Stand scored 56.35. In the Grade II Team test Wendy Moller on Samac’s Heart of Gold scored 63.33 and our youngest Para Dressage rider Anthony Dawson scored 58.38 on Gitano. Wednesday was the Individual Grade IV test with Philippa and Verdi scoring 63.02 and Cathy and United we Stand scoring 44.71. Still to come are the Grade II and Grade I Individual Tests and then onto the Freestyle tests.
