

To all competitive Show Jumpers:

The Royal Show Pietermaritzburg 2010 is thrilled to announce that the FEI World Cup Qualifier will again be incorporated into the atmospheric and exciting Main Royal Show and will not be a stand alone event this year. The Royal Show dates are 28th May – 6 June with all Open Horses starting to compete on Thursday 27th May. Lower grades will start competing on Monday 30th May. Pony Rider show jumping classes will also be held during the latter half of the week but not at the weekend. Schedules will be available on websites soon however if you are planning to come to this exciting show with an Open Horse please book your accommodation now due to the Comrades Marathon being run over the weekend of the 29th May.
