

South African's head to Sunshine Tour

Lexi Carter, Dominique Hau and Charles Luyckx are also enjoying sunny Spain whilst attending the well renowned Spanish Sunshine Tour in Vejer de la Frontera which finishes on the 15th March 2009. The Sunshine tour, which is held at the Dehesa Montenmedio Country Club and Golf course, is a yearly favourite for the European riders to get away from the cold weather and prepare their horses for the season in a sunnier climate.

Dehesa Montenmedio becomes its own little village with over 1000 horses and grooms accommodating the stable area. Riders competing in Showjumping, Dressage and Eventing take their young horses for training as well as the top horses to compete in the FEI Events.

Vejer de la Frontera is in the Andalucía province of Cadiz. It is a hilltop town which occupies low hill overlooking the straits of Gibraltar and is surrounded by Orchards and Orange Groves. Vejer's chief industry is Agriculture and fruit farming and fighting bull are also bred in the neighborhood.
